Dear Members,

Our Summer 2024 Semester will consist of in-person classes, Zoom classes, and a few hybrid classes. Please remember that these classes are only for Founders Hall members.

Registration for Summer 2024 is similar to previous years, with an online option and a mail-in option. The online option saves significant staff resources so I hope you will try that if you haven't before.

In-Person Attendance Information

Our goal is to keep Founders Hall members, instructors and staff healthy while gathering in-person and enjoying each other's company. To achieve that, each of us plays an important role. Abiding by these expectations and rules is necessary to keep our community safe and to make our in-person programs successful. These rules apply to classes, events, and drop-in visits.

The Rules:

1. If you don't feel well, please stay home.
2. If you test positive for the COVID virus, please inform Grace immediately.

Closing and Cancellation

Closings for inclement weather will be posted on www.founders-hall.org.

Programs are subject to change and/or cancellation.

The Best Medicine: Works of Humor and Satire ~ In-Person

'Humor is an instant vacation,' according to Milton Berle, and what better way to enjoy the summer than to read some classic works by writers who use humor and satire to comment on society, human behavior, and the human condition? In this class, readers can expect lively discussion as well as plenty of laughter as we examine important works by Nikolai Gogol, Oscar Wilde, and Ken Kesey and discover that, as Mel Brooks remarked, 'Humor is just another defense against the universe.'

The books for the semester are available through the registration form: One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest by Ken Kesey - Berkley Edition ($9); The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde - Penguin Edition ($4); The Diary of a Madman and Other Stories by Nikolai Gogol - Signet Edition ($5).

Film: Romantic Comedies ~ In-Person

Boy meets girl, boy loses...well, you know. But not all romantic comedies are the same. The joy of them is in, as they say, the details. Think of Jack Nicholson's obsessions in As Good As It Gets, or Katherine Hepburn walking with one high heel as she explains she was born on the side of a mountain in Bringing Up Baby. Writing and acting are all in these films. But watch out! Once in a while someone slips in plot curves we don't expect - the story careens out of control. This is the Screwball Comedy. We'll take in both this Summer.

Section 1: Monday 10:00AM-1:00PM

First Class: June 17

Section 2: Monday 1:30-4:30PM

First Class: June 17

Meditation Workshop ~ In-Person

Meditation is a simple way to reconnect with well-being, and make a fresh start. This summer's class offers the opportunity to practice in a group setting as we take a fresh look at the basics. Each class will include a guided meditation, a short presentation, Q&A and a group discussion. The presentations will highlight practicalities, such as understanding what meditation is all about, how best to establish a regular practice, avoid pitfalls and discouragement, and how to bring the wonderful benefits of meditation into our daily lives. The class welcomes newcomers to meditation, and those who are just curious to try it out. It will also be helpful for those who already have some experience. Each class will be self-contained.

Instructor: Peter Bancel

Fee: $20/$24NR (5 Sessions)

Music with Michael Lankester ~ In-Person and on Zoom

What's in a Name? - Nicknamed Compositions

Which sounds more interesting, more intriguing, more attractive - Haydn's Symphony No. 94 in G (H. 1/94) or 'The Surprise'? Mozart's Symphony No. 41 in C K.551 or 'Jupiter'? Beethoven's Piano Sonata No. 14 in C-sharp minor Op.27 No.2 or 'Moonlight Sonata'? It is an established fact that if the performance of a musical composition is advertised with its colourful subtitle, more tickets will be sold. And it is not always the composer who has provided the subtitle - in many instances the accretion of a nickname has been added in later centuries. In this series, Michael Lankester investigates the phenomenon of 'named' compositions.

1. Brahms Tragic Overture & Mahler Symphony No.6 The Tragic
2. Beethoven Piano Sonata No.8 in C-minor Pathétique & Tchaikovsky Symphony No.6 Pathétique
3. Vaughan Williams Sea Symphony & Howard Hanson Sea Symphony
4. Sibelius String Quartet Intimate Voices & Gorecki Symphony of Sorrowful Songs
5. Schubert String Quartet Death and the Maiden & Granados The Maiden and the Nightingale
6. Dvořak The Bells of Zlonice & Rachmaninov The Bells
7. Beethoven Symphony No.6 Pastoral & Vaughan Williams Symphony No.3 Pastoral Symphony
8. Dvořak Symphony No.9 New World and Bernstein Symphony No.1 Age of Anxiety
9. Mendelssohn - Symphony No.5 Reformation & Mahler Symphony No.2 Resurrection

Class will not meet July 4th.

Processing the Waves of Grief: a Group Experience ~ In-Person

Whether it is a spouse, a friend, or a child, losing someone we love is painful and difficult. It takes time to process the loss and the grief - and it is often described as coming in waves. In this group experience, you will have a place to sit with others who are working through grief. There is no 'right way' to process grief. You will have space to remember your loved ones, to talk about the loss and look at how you live and feel in current times. Katie Guillory is an experienced facilitator who will hold the space for these discussions. Note: there is no timeline for loss. You can come and process a loss from a long time ago, or something more recent. All are welcome. Class will not meet July 8.

Monday 11:30AM-12:30PM

Instructor: Katie Guillory

First Class: June 17

Fee: $30/$36NR (6 Sessions)

Showing Up For Yourself: NUSHU Group to Reflect & Connect ~ In-Person

NUSHU Group is a sharing circle where we create time and space to check in with ourselves through reflection, writing, and saying things out loud. In NUSHU Group, the facilitator offers prompts for your consideration. You will have a few minutes to reflect and write. You can go wherever your mind takes you, as deeply as you feel comfortable going. At the end of that time, the floor will be opened to sharing. You can say as much or as little as you would like. Pass or "come back to me" is always an option. In these groups, there is no crosstalk or advice giving. Sometimes being present and listening to each other really is more than enough. The group will be led by Katie Guillory, who is a certified NUSHU Group facilitator. She has a knack for asking just the right questions to unlock insight. You will be surprised by this experience. Come explore yourself and share with others in person. This group will meet for 60-90 minutes. Class will not meet July 8.

Monday 1:30-3:00PM

Instructor: Katie Guillory

First Class: June 17

Fee: $30/$36NR (7 Sessions)

Writing Workshop ~ In-Person

We each have a story to tell. It needs to be told; it wants out. Discover your story in this writing workshop where each participant is both a teacher and a pupil. The process is joyful and rewarding, as we hone our skills and learn. Each week, write something of your choice within two pages - an essay, memoir, poem, short story. Read it in a friendly environment, and receive constructive feedback focused on clarity, grammar, punctuation, and organization of the piece. Everyone stands to gain as we sharpen our writing skills. The class will be limited to 11.

On the Road Program

The following trips will depart from Pond's Edge Executive Park, 901 Ethan Allen Highway (Route 7). The executive park is south of the intersection of Routes 35 and 7. Please enter through the south entrance, which is near Ace Tire and across the street from Ridgefield Self-Storage. There is a sign that says 'Medical and Professional Park' at the entrance.

You must have pre-arranged transportation to and from the bus.

The bus will leave promptly at the assigned time. We are not able to wait for any late arrivals, no exceptions.

South Pacific at Goodspeed Opera House

On a lush tropical island during World War II, battles of the heart are center stage in the Goodspeed premiere of the soaring Rodgers and Hammerstein classic. A lovestruck nurse and a young lieutenant are pulled into the tide of separate romances in an exotic world of risk and passion. But prejudice clouds their potential paradise. Get swept away by twin love stories and a rapturous score that includes 'Some Enchanted Evening,' 'I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outta My Hair,' 'Bali Ha'i' and more. The trip includes lunch at The Gelston House restaurant before the show.

Wednesday, June 26      9:30AM-6:30PM      Fee: $154/$185NR

The Peabody Museum at Yale/ IKEA New Haven

The Peabody Museum has been the natural history museum of Yale University for more than 150 years. It has recently reopened after a major renovation which has increased the gallery space by 50%. We will spend a few hours exploring the new exhibits on our own. (The Peabody does not offer guided tours.) Then, a change of pace as we head to Ikea for an afternoon of Swedish meatballs and shopping. Lunch is on your own at the Ikea cafeteria and is not included in the price of the trip.

Art Program

Sponsored by the Anna-Maria and Stephen Kellen Foundation

Birds in Altered Landscapes - Colored Pencil Drawing ~ In-Person

Riding on the coat-tails of Cheryl Medow and Jeff Sullivan (photographers), but working with colored pencils instead of a camera lens, and with creativity running wild (or amok), we will draw 'altered habitat' scenes (imagined, invented, theoretical) of distinctive larger birds (cranes, herons, flamingos, etc.) against dramatic backdrops in which they would not typically be found. Emphasis will be placed on composition, and on the process of drawing landscapes using colored pencils.

Materials to start: 9"x12" pad of Canson XL Mixed Media white paper - or similar; mechanical pencil for sketching out ideas; set of colored pencils (wax-based and/or watercolor pencils); handheld pencil sharpener; pocket folder for storing reference sheet hand-outs.

Tuesday 1:00-2:30PM

Instructor: Moki Kokoris

First Class: June 18

Fee: $45/$52NR (8 Sessions)

Drawing Basics with Karen ~ In-Person

Working from life, using charcoal and India ink media, students will develop and perfect the 'art of seeing.' Spatial relationships, light and shadow, volume, and mark making will be explored to produce both representational and expressive drawings. Learning through experimentation and 'play,' participants will build skills as they discover their unique marks as artists. Art historical references will help demonstrate technique and approach.

Monday 10:30AM-12:30PM

Instructor: Karen Pellicchia

First Class: June 17

Fee: $45/$52NR (10 Sessions)

Drawing Studio Workshop ~ In-Person

This studio time affords an opportunity to work with like-minded colored pencil artists.

Monday 2:30-4:30PM

Instructor: Open Session

First Class: June 17

Fee: $12/$15NR (10 Sessions)

FOUNDERS HALL SUMMER 2024

Italic Traditional Calligraphy ~ In-Person

Italic, or Chancery Cursive, was the handwriting of Renaissance scribes, its graceful arching forms reflecting the architecture of the time. Today, Italic calligraphy is frequently used for invitations, envelopes, place cards, or in decorative art pieces. In this class, students will learn this elegant alphabet following a step-by-step approach, which will cover the basic strokes that create the letters, both minuscules (lower-case letters) and majuscules (capitals). We will also discuss spacing, layout, and will work to design a small final piece - perhaps your favorite quote! Time-permitting, we may also cover flourishing, which embellishes the writing by adding sweeping curves, spirals, loops, and other decorative strokes.

The materials list will be provided following registration.

Tuesday 3:00-4:30PM

Instructor: Moki Kokoris

First Class: June 18

Fee: $45/$52NR (8 Sessions)

Life Drawing ~ In-Person

Students work each week from a live model. During the last half-hour, peers will critique each other's work. A model fee, based on the number of students in the workshop, will be collected at the first class. Class will not meet July 3.

Wednesday 10:00AM-12:00PM

Instructor: Donatella Gagliano

First class: June 19

Fee: $45/$52NR (8 Sessions)

Ukrainian Reverse Glass Painting ~ In-Person

One of the lesser known folk arts in Ukraine is reverse glass painting which is created by applying paint to a piece of glass, then turning the glass over and viewing the image through the glass. This art form was widely used in the painting of Byzantine icons, many of which were also gilded. In this course, we will explore this craft using acrylic paint on sheets of acrylic (plexiglass) to learn the process, emulating contemporary Ukrainian tapestry design patterns.

Supply list will be sent following registration.

Bridge Intermediate / Advanced ~ In-Person

This class is for experienced players who want to improve their bidding, declarer play, and defense to the next level. We'll focus on 2/1 Game Force, supplemented by Standard American bidding based on five-card majors and will cover important basic conventions like Blackwood, Stayman, and transfers. Then we'll build upon that knowledge and learn more about competitive conventions like Michaels, Splinters, Jacoby 2NT, Negative Doubles, Roman Key Card Blackwood and New Minor Forcing. The class will also cover advances in defensive play: what to discard, giving count, and how to use suit preference signals. Comprised of short classroom lectures followed by the bidding and play of real bridge hands, this class is for players who are ready for more complex play. Recommended texts: Bridge for Everyone, D. W. Crisfield ($20), and 25 Bridge Conventions You Should Know, Seagram and Smith ($18) are both available through the registration form.
